Kids can think and reorganize it. It can improve body balance and develop imagination.

We can use it differently according to age and development, and it is good to be able to experience various movements of the whole body. It doesn't take long to assemble, and it is good to change the combination each time according to the kids.

The varieties of play is infinite. It's fun to think, it's fun to watch, it's fun to do! Even for small-scale childcare. It is easy to use. And I can feel the warmth of the wood. I really like it.
